

A library app people actually renew books with

Your Name · Product Designer · Public sector · 6 weeks

THE BRIEF

A fictional demo study. A council library service had an app that most members installed once and never opened again. A short discovery found the one job people came back for, and the redesign built everything around it.

THE OUTCOME

Demo figure: monthly active members up from 9% to 31% of installs

DELIVERED

Discovery interviews

Redesigned home screen

Renewal reminders
